INTRODUCTION TO WANTAGE

Wantage, a town steeped in history and heritage is located in the picturesque county of Oxfordshire.

Wantage is famously the birth place of King Alfred the Great (in 849), who ruled during the Anglo-Saxon era. His statue stands proudly in the town centre amongst a bustling selection of high-street chains and charming independent restaurants and cafés. This is a good reflection of Wantage as a whole; a town with a great sense of heritage combined with everything you would expect from modern town convenience.

The town has an interesting selection of shops, supermarkets (Waitrose, Sainsbury's), pubs, leisure facilities and business. You can learn more about the area's history at The Vale and Downland Museum, enjoy a trip to Millets Farm Centre, a family day out to Didcot Railway Centre, or simply enjoy walks across the stunning National Trust White Horse Hill. Within walking distance of your new home at Broadwater Place is the Memorial Park, the Wantage Leisure Centre, Tennis Club and Wantage CE Primary School.

Part of the Vale of the White Horse, Wantage has great access to Abingdon and Harwell. Wantage is 15 miles from the city of Oxford and 17 miles from the town of Newbury. Didcot Railway station is only 9 miles away, with direct links to London Paddington (45 minutes) and Oxford (15 minutes).

Local attractions in Oxford feature the new state of the art West Gate shopping centre, The Ashmolean Museum with ancient and modern art and antiquities covering world civilizations, plus fine and applied arts, entertainment venues, and world class colleges. Newbury has an array of shops and restaurants, The Corn Exchange and The Watermill theatres, a recently built Vue Cinema and the famous Newbury Racecourse.

Whatever your lifestyle, Wantage has something to offer everyone and where better to enjoy it, than from a beautiful new home at Broadwater Place?
