Bespoke Interiors.

From the moment you enter the grand reception hall, the home impresses with its scale and detail - exposed stonework, oak lintels, and a sweeping staircase set a refined tone. At its heart is a spectacular 60ft open-plan living and dining space, centred around a bespoke kitchen with American Walnut and stone worktops - both stylish and practical for family life or entertaining. The ground floor also includes two further reception rooms and a spacious utility/boot room for everyday convenience.

Upstairs, a galleried landing leads to four luxurious bedroom suites, including an exceptional principal room with vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, dual en-suites, and a dressing room. A versatile loft room offers ideal space for a games room, studio, or playroom.

Exquisite Outdoors.

To the rear of the property, a fully self-contained annexe with private access offers a bedroom, modern kitchen, living area, and en-suite bathroom - ideal for guests, extended family, or a live-in nanny. A detached outbuilding, currently used as a work-from-home space, adds flexibility for remote working or hobbies. The home is set within a generous, secluded plot with a landscaped garden, perfect for outdoor entertaining, dining, or simply unwinding in privacy. A private drive provides ample parking and enhances the property's curb appeal.

Located in the desirable hamlet of Hampton, on the outskirts of Highworth, this exceptional home offers the tranquillity of rural living with convenient access to Marlborough, the Cotswolds, and a range of local amenities, top schools, and transport links, making it an ideal countryside retreat without compromise.
