Kilby Crescent is a beautifully presented detached home that perfectly combines modern style with practical family living. From the moment you step inside, the space and layout stand out, with a generous reception room for relaxing and entertaining, a sleek kitchen and dining area designed for everyday family life, and a separate office that makes working from home effortless. The addition of a utility room keeps the home organised and functional, while the overall flow of the ground floor feels bright, spacious and welcoming.

The location in North Swindon is one of the most sought-after in the area, with excellent schools, shops and amenities all close by.

The Orbital Shopping Park offers a wide choice of retail and leisure, while Swindon town center and mainline station put London Paddington under an hour away by train. With the M4 nearby and open green spaces within easy reach, this is a home that offers the perfect balance of connectivity, community and quality of life.
